LIBRARY MATCHING GRANT PROJECT – MISSION ACCOMPLISHED!

Wiengkosai Elementary School (in Phrae, Thailand) has opened the Jareansil Library to parents to encourage reading to their children. Parents and students now make use of the library every day, thanks to the Rotary Club of East Honolulu which successfully completed a Library Equipment Matching Grant in partnership with its sister club in Thailand and the Rotary Club of Honolulu Sunrise. East Honolulu Rotarians should be proud for what they have done for this community!

ROTARY FRIENDSHIP EXCHANGE - THAILAND

East Honolulu Rotary's Sister Club, The Rotary Club of Wiengkosai, Phrae, Thailand, will be coming to Hawaii on a Rotary Friendship Exchange visit. The purpose of such a visit is to build relationships across the oceans and to be up close and personal with a culture different from theirs. Twelve Thai Rotary members will be arriving in Honolulu on Tuesday, October 20. They will immediately fly to Hilo to be hosted by the Rotary Club of South Hilo. They will return to Honolulu on Friday, October 23, and leave for Thailand on Tuesday, October 27. While in Honolulu, they will be hosted by Joanne Taira, Betty Dower, Jane Yamashiro, Donn & Sisi Takaki, and Mark & May Tagawa. They will visit Pearl Harbor Memorial, Polynesian Cultural Center, two Rotary Clubs, and several elementary schools.
